

SATURDAY, JANUARY 14, 1744

Yesterday arrived a Mail from Flanders.

Constantinople, November 23.

THE Divan has just now receiv'd an Account that the Persians have been obliged to raise the Siege of Mosul with the Loss of 8000 Men, in a Sally made by the Besieged; as also that the Lefghis, to the Number of 30,000 Men, have made an Irruption into the Persian Georgia, where they have penetrated as far as the Gates of Teflis, and threaten'd to form the Siege of that City. But that which is of still greater Consequence to the Ottoman Empire, is the surprizing Intelligence of the total Defeat of the Persian Army, which has been surprized in a certain Pass of the Mountains, called Sinobogasse, where an infinite Number of Persians were left dead upon the Spot; among whom were many of their principal Officers. Two, who were made Prisoners in that Action, have been brought to this City; it is even believed, that Thomas Kouli Kan, who shew'd a great deal of Spirit, and was every where, during the Engagement, lost his Life in it, because he has never been seen since.

Naples, December 25. The last Letters received from Calabria are not so satisfactory; since it appears from them, that there are still some Remains of the Infection lurking in Reggio, and its Suburbs; where we are informed there died lately, in four Days, in the Hospitals of the Town, and Places adjoining, no less than 37 Persons, among whom there were indeed some old Persons and Children, upon whom no Marks of Infection appeared; But to Balance this, no less than 66 fell Sick of the Distemper within the same Space of Time. Several Villages at a considerable Distance from the Line which separates the Country that is infected, have been attacked by the Disease, wherein many have perished, and many are still in a deplorable Condition; but we hope the approaching Season, joined with good Remedies, and a proper Care, may extirpate it entirely; but, in the mean time, all the Precautions imaginable are used to prevent its spreading. We have just now Advice, that there has happened a great Earthquake at Chietti, which frightened the Inhabitants into the Fields, and swallowed up many of them before they could disengage themselves from the Ruin of their Houses.

Florence, December 28. We learn by Letters from Bastia, dated the 11th of this Month, that in the Conferences held on the 8th, 9th, and 10th, between the Commissioners from the Republic of Genoa and the Inhabitants of the Island, the latter joyfully received the Propositions made by the former; that the same Evening the Governor dispatched a Courier for Genoa with this important News, and the very next Morning embarked a Battalion of Troops that had been sent over into that Island, and is making the necessary Preparations for sending over more. According to some Advices from the Island of Hieres, Admiral Mathews has laid aside his intended Expedition, in order to confer with the Ministers of the Allies on the present critical Situation of Affairs, and the Measures necessary to be pursued in order to defeat the Designs of the French and Spaniards.

Venice, January 4. His Serene Highness the Duke de Modena arrived here on the last Day of the old Year, and is at present performing Quarantine in the Convent of the Holy Ghost, which was the Place assigned him for that Purpose.

Vienna, January 4. After all the Feasts and Entertainments on Account of the Marriage of Prince Charles with the Arch-duchess Mary-Ane are over, their Highnesses will set out, on the 24th of February, for Brussels by the Way of Prague, Dresden, Wolfenbuttel, and Hanover; we are likewise informed, that the Duke d'Arenberg will take the same Route some Days before them, in order to prepare all Things necessary for their Reception. It does not at all appear, that we have Reason to hope the speedy Return of Peace; but, on the other hand, there seems to be the greatest Probability that our Forces, joined to those of the Queen's good Allies, will, in time, be able to force the common Enemy to conclude a Peace upon just and reasonable Terms; so that the Tranquillity of Europe may, for the future, stand on a solid Foundation.

Hague, January 14. Count Maurice of Nassau sets out to-morrow for London. The last Letters from Basil, dated the 2d of this Month, inform us, that the French Troops in the Neighbourhood of Hunninguen were put into the greatest Confusion by a false Alarm, that the Austrians were coming to attack them; upon which they lighted up all their Beacons, and fired several Volleys of Small-Shot.

I R E L A N D.

Dublin, January 7. Wednesday last died of the Small Pox, at his Lodgings in Skinner Row, Thomas Heydon, Esq; of the County of Kilkenny; a young Gentleman possess'd of 1000 l. per Ann. which, we hear, devolves to his two sisters.

The Yearly Bill of Mortality for the City and Suburbs of Dublin, ending the 23d of December, 1743, is as follows; Males buried, 1087; Females, 1106. Males baptized, 797; Females, 720. Decreased in the Burials this Year 127; increased in the Christnings this Year 167.

Last Sunday Evening some Rioters went into the House of one Lawler, near the Herb Marker, and beat and bruised him in such a severe manner, that his Life is despaired of. The next Morning Mr. Alderman Aldrich went to his Bed-Side to take his Examination against Robert Caddele, Samuel Plunkett, and John Darney, which were all he knew; who are since taken, and are now in Newgate.

Cobb's Deck, 29 of his Men, who are brought in here. There were 20 Spaniards killed and drowned; Capt. Cobb had but 14 Men and two Boys. Capt.
